Protected Client Information

Accounting of Disclosures

Disclosures that are NOT required to be included in this Accounting:

- Disclosures made for treatment, payment, and operations of my practice.
- Disclosures and use of client information permitted or required by law.
- Disclosures made to people involved in the client's care.
- Disclosures made to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials.
- Disclosures made to the client at his/her request.
- Disclosures made in response to an authorization signed by the client.
- Disclosures made for national security or intelligence purposes.
- Disclosures made that do not include client identifiers (name, address, distinguishing details, etc.)

Client Name: Client ID#

Disclosure Date	Recipient Name & Address	Brief Description of Protected Information	Brief Statement of Purpose of Disclosure